Q225: Decent print, guidance cautious

Reiterate Rating: UNDERPERFORM | PO: 1,230 GBp | Price: 1,374 GBp

Overall: Q2 decent, valuation not that cheap on stat ROTE

Overall, Standard Chartered printed a decent set of Q225 numbers, with underlying PBT 23% ahead of consensus. Within the underlying print there is a $238m disposal gain from the sale of Solv India, which was announced at the end of June and guided to c.$0.2bn, although not fully captured in consensus. Excluding this, underlying PBT was c.17% ahead, driven by higher income and lower impairments. While income guidance was upgraded, it appears conservative versus where consensus currently is. We remain Underperform on the stock, given ongoing macro uncertainty and valuation not obviously cheap at c.1x P/TBV 26e for <12% statutory 2026 ROTE. However, we have lowered cost equity from 14% to 12.5%, bringing it broadly in line with cost of equity in the sector, and therefore increased PO to 1,230p / 32.96 USD (previous 1,060p / 28.20 USD).

Beat driven by Markets and lower impairments, RWA higher

We note that the Solv India gain ($238m) is recognised in underlying non-NII, and not considered a 'notable item'. Underlying PBT ex this one-off disposal gain was 17% (or $309m) ahead of consensus, with income 4% (or $195m) ahead and impairments $130m below (including release of $44m). Within the income line, NII was a 2% miss, while non-NII was a 10% beat, largely driven by Markets ($204m above). As a result of the strong Markets performance, market risk RWA did not reduce as much as management previously expected, falling only by c.$1bn in the quarter ex FX (vs c.$8bn increase in Q1). RWA print was c.3% above consensus.

Guidance: upgraded total income, more cautious on NII, restructuring cost drifting higher in 2026

Management upgraded 2025 income growth guidance to be 'around bottom of 5-7% range' (previously below 5-7% range). Consensus is already c.5% without fully factoring in Solv India gain. Within this management also reduced NII guidance to 'expected to be down low single digit percentage' (previous language 'challenging to grow'). We note that below the line costs are now expected to be c.$700-$800m in 2026, c.$100m above consensus (2025 c.$800-$850m, or c.7% of underlying costs).

Company Description

Standard Chartered is headquartered in London, but its major operations are in Asia and Africa, with a diverse footprint within these continents. Standard Chartered has three main divisions, including Wealth and Retail Banking, Corporate and Institutional Banking, and Ventures. The shares are listed in both London and Hong Kong in a dual primary listing.

Investment Rationale

We rate Standard Chartered Underperform. It does not appear expensive despite strong share price performance in the last 12-18 months. However, we see downside risks from here given NII compression in a falling US rate environment. In addition, emerging markets are likely to face more macro headwinds given a more difficult US trade policy. We also see downside risk to cost, particularly below the line. While we remain positive on Wealth, upside feels priced in.

Estimate changes

Underlying PBT: We have increased underlying PBT by 3% for 2025e, but kept 2026/2027 estimates broadly unchanged. For 2025, the increase is largely driven by lower impairments given the lower Q2 print. Our EPS changes are lower than PBT changes reflecting buyback at a higher share price vs May.

Income: We have kept our total income estimates broadly unchanged for 2025e-2027e. Our previous 2025e estimate (which had already fully factored in the Solv India gain) already implies a c.6% increase year on year, vs management guidance 'bottom of 5-7% range'. While we have increased our non-NII forecast by c.3% reflecting the Q2 beat from Markets, we have reduced our NII forecast taking into account the Q2 miss, as well as management's more cautious guidance.

Cost: We have increased 2026/2027 forecasts by c.1%, reflecting FX movements. Management's 2026 cost target is underlying expenses below $12.3bn, but have noted that on current 2026 forward FX rates, this represents c.$12.4bn.

Impairment: We have reduced 2025 credit impairment forecast by 21% (or $222m), largely reflecting the $130m beat from Q2.

Cost exceptionals: We have reduced our 2025 forecast slightly from $900m to $850m, but increased our 2026 forecast from $750m to $850m. Management now expects the $1.5bn 'fit for growth' cost programme to shift more to 2026 (now expect c.45-55% cost to achieve to be taken in 2026, vs previous c.40%). This means that 2026 would see restructuring cost at a similar level to 2025 (c.7% of underlying opex).

Tax: Q2 effective tax rate was c.24%, below guided range of 'high 20s'. We have reduced our tax rate estimate slightly for the year, and as such our changes to our attributable profit are higher than changes to PBT.

Wealth: New-to-bank (NTB) clients remained strong at 64k in 2Q25. Affluent AUM increased 8% QoQ/43% YoY to $420bn, including 8% QoQ/70% YoY growth of wealth AUM to $225bn and 9% QoQ/20% YoY growth of deposits to $195bn. Net new money (NNM) rose 24% YoY to $15.6bn in 2Q25, mainly driven by deposits ($12.4bn) as clients await investment opportunities. However, we note that Wealth margin on investment products declined in the quarter – management notes that some of this reflects the time it takes to convert custody assets to AUM which took place at the end of last year, but expects the margin to continue to improve.

HK CRE: The exposure further reduced $0.1bn QoQ to $2.1bn (<0.5% of Group exposure), with 81% secured and average LTV below 50%. NPL ratio further increased from 2% in 1Q25 to 4% in 2Q25, due to another downgrade to stage 3 in the office sector. Standard Chartered took $116mn provisions for the HK CRE portfolio in 2Q25, up $34mn QoQ, mostly due to refinancing and top-up for a stage 3 downgrade in the office sector. The bank sees risk of further impairment due to subdued property sector, increased macro uncertainties and liquidity constraints at some HK CRE borrowers, although management is confident that it is manageable at the group level, and believes that their exposure is 'truly different' from other players.

Price objective basis & risk

Standard Chartered (SCBFF / SCBFY)

Our primary valuation methodology is a Gordon Growth Model based on our 2026e forecast, to which we add the present value of expected dividends. With a 12.5% cost of equity assumption, this suggests a 2026E price to book multiple of 0.9x, reducing to 0.8x when discounted to a year from now at our cost of equity. Applying this to 2025E tangible book value of 1,741c gives a value of 1,470c pre capital return. To this we add the dividends we forecast through to 2026E (also discounted to 2025e), and adjust for excess capital to the bottom end of management guidance. Using this valuation approach, we arrive at a price objective of 1,230p (32.96 USD).

The upside risks to our PO are: 1. US rates stay higher for longer, terminal rate higher than expected, 2. further stimulus from the Chinese government, 3. Emerging Asia/ Hong Kong loan growth recovers faster than expected.

The downside risks to our PO are: 1. Loan growth remains subdued for longer, 2. Wealth Management flows slow as competition intensifies in the market, 3. Global trade flows reduce more than expected with higher tariffs.

Equity Investment Rating Distribution: Global Group (as of 30 Jun 2025)

Coverage Universe	Count	Percent	Inv. Banking Relationships ^{R1}	Count	Percent
Buy	1840	53.64%	Buy	1081	58.75%
Hold	807	23.53%	Hold	472	58.49%
Sell	783	22.83%	Sell	375	47.89%

^{R1} Issuers that were investment banking clients of BofA Securities or one of its affiliates within the past 12 months. For purposes of this Investment Rating Distribution, the coverage universe includes only stocks. A stock rated Neutral is included as a Hold, and a stock rated Underperform is included as a Sell.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). Our investment ratings are: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. An investment rating of 6 (No Rating) indicates that a stock is no longer trading on the basis of fundamentals. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

Investment rating	Total return expectation (within 12-month period of date of initial rating)	Ratings dispersion guidelines for coverage cluster ^{R2}
Buy	≥ 10%	≤ 70%
Neutral	≥ 0%	≤ 30%
Underperform	N/A	≥ 20%

^{R2}Ratings dispersions may vary from time to time where BofA Global Research believes it better reflects the investment prospects of stocks in a Coverage Cluster.

INCOME RATINGS, indicators of potential cash dividends, are: 7 - same/higher (dividend considered to be secure), 8 - same/lower (dividend not considered to be secure) and 9 - pays no cash dividend. Coverage Cluster is comprised of stocks covered by a single analyst or two or more analysts sharing a common industry, sector, region or other classification(s). A stock's coverage cluster is included in the most recent BofA Global Research report referencing the stock.
