

DBS Group

4Q25 – valuations continue to price in blue skies; risk-reward skewed to the downside

Maintain Rating: UNDERPERFORM | PO: 53.00 SGD | Price: 59.30 SGD

4Q25 – miss on street but in line with BofAe

DBS 4Q25 profit of S$2.4 bn (-19.8% QoQ/-9.2% YoY) –in-line with our forecasts but short of street expectations, driven by NIM compression (-3 bp), higher credit costs (19 bp), and lower trading income, partially offset by healthy loan growth (2% QoQ), strong WM fees (+24% YoY). Overall, a decent quarter overshadowed by singular HK CRE account downgrade + weaker than expected trading income / gains.

2026 guidance reiterated – stable top-line, slightly lower NII and net profit, high single digit non-II growth (driven by mid-teens WM fee growth), low 40s CIR, 17-20 bp SP.

Maintain Underperform with PO S$53 – street was largely expecting DBS to continue firing on all cylinders, a scenario we viewed as unlikely given the high base across all earnings drivers. Current valuations (2.4x book) are pricing in continued outperformance across all drivers, leaving little room for error. Key risks – WM metrics to continue outperforming peers, further widening the gap; relative clarity on capital management plans to drive retail / private banks investor interest.

Hits & misses

Misses – NIM compression, slight AQ deterioration, lower trading income – 1) NIMs compressed by 3 bp QoQ, driven by lower asset yields; 2) underlying AQ trends deteriorated slightly with NPA rising to 1.1% (NPL stable at 1.0%) and coverage level falling to 122%. DBS also recorded SP of 37 bp this quarter (relating to single HK CRE account which was already provided for in GP stack); 3) other non-II (trading, gains on securities) fell 21.0% YoY, partially due to high base.

Hits – healthy loan growth, strong WM momentum – 1) loans growth of 1.8% QoQ driven largely by trade loans; 2) wealth momentum remains intact (fees rose 24.0% YoY, net new money reached record S$12 bn across entire wealth platform).

Company Sector

Banks-Multinational/Universal

Company Description

DBS Group is Singapore's largest bank, owned 30% by the Singapore government's Temasek Holdings unit. DBS purchased Dao Heng Bank in HK in 2001. In Singapore, it has traditionally been strong in corporate and consumer lending. DBS also has a growing presence in Greater China, Southeast Asia and South Asia. DBS has over 280 branches across 18 markets in Asia.

Investment Rationale

We rate DBS Underperform. DBS remains a best-in-class franchise, but both absolute and relative valuations now appear to be pricing in more optimism than warranted by the macro setup. Further re-rating from here would require some new earnings stream starting to deliver meaningfully (one potential source of surprise could be from crypto related businesses).

Key takeaways from analyst call

NIM

- 4Q25 NIMs contracted 3 bp QoQ to 1.93% – driven by lower commercial book NIMs (from lower yields) but partially offset by deposit rate cuts and proactive hedges.

Deposit growth came in strongly at 2.5% QoQ / 8.6% YoY, allowing DBS to defend NII with NII and ROE accretive HQLA deployment. While the pace of deposit growth is likely to normalize in 2026, DBS still aims to deploy excess liquidity into HQLA to defend NII.

- 2026 NII guided slightly lower than 2025 – driven by lower benchmark rates YoY + downward repricing of maturing hedges. but partially offset by HQLA deployment. DBS has ~S$80 bn of fixed rate assets maturing this year, which will likely be repriced ~50 bp lower. SORA is estimated at 1.25% with two more Fed rate cuts and a stronger SGD.

Growth

- 4Q25 loan growth 1.8% QoQ – driven primarily by trade loans. DBS also saw growth in large corporates and WM loans.
- 2026 non-trade loan growth to grow at MSD

Non-II

- 4Q25 non-II growth -2.2% YoY – driven by lower trading income / gain on securities, partially offset by strong fee growth of 13.5% YoY (WM fees +24.0% YoY, with net new money of S$12 bn in 4Q across the entire wealth platform).
- FY26 high single digit commercial book growth guidance reiterated – driven by mid-teens growth in wealth management fees.

Cost efficiency

- 4Q25 CIR 44.5% - low 40s FY26 CIR guidance reiterated

Asset quality

- 4Q25 credit costs of 19 bp – driven by SP of 37 bp as DBS pre-emptively downgraded a HK real estate account (yet to default). Out of the bank's ~S$10 bn exposure to China real estate, only about 10% is attributable to local privately owned enterprises (with 50% LTVs) while the rest of the book is attributable to SOEs and strong foreign entities (i.e. CapitaLand/Temasek-linked Singapore names etc.).
- 17-20 bp FY26 SP guidance reiterated – with potential for GP writeback if macro conditions stay resilient.

Capital

- 6c step up – bringing base dividend per share to 66 cents.

2026

- Other guidance – total income to be around 2025 levels, net profit to be slightly down

Price objective basis & risk

DBS Group (DBSDF / DBSDY)

Our PO of S$53.00 (US$162.86) is derived using a Gordon growth model, which assumes a sustainable ROE of 16.2%, cost of equity of 8.7%, and a long-term growth rate of 2.0%. This implies a warranted PBV of 2.1x.

Downside risks to our PO are: protracted global economic slowdown and a significant deterioration in the asset quality environment. Upside risks to our PO are: better than expected macro recovery, faster-than-expected execution of digital strategy boosting operational efficiency, and more active capital management.

Equity Investment Rating Distribution: Global Group (as of 31 Dec 2025)

Coverage Universe	Count	Percent	Inv. Banking Relationships ^{R1}	Count	Percent
Buy	1869	53.99%	Buy	1069	57.20%
Hold	834	24.09%	Hold	481	57.67%
Sell	759	21.92%	Sell	383	50.46%

^{R1} Issuers that were investment banking clients of BofA Securities or one of its affiliates within the past 12 months. For purposes of this Investment Rating Distribution, the coverage universe includes only stocks. A stock rated Neutral is included as a Hold, and a stock rated Underperform is included as a Sell.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). Our investment ratings are: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. An investment rating of 6 (No Rating) indicates that a stock is no longer trading on the basis of fundamentals. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

Investment rating	Total return expectation (within 12-month period of date of initial rating)	Ratings dispersion guidelines for coverage cluster ^{R2}
Buy	≥ 10%	≤ 70%
Neutral	≥ 0%	≤ 30%
Underperform	N/A	≥ 20%

^{R2}Ratings dispersions may vary from time to time where BofA Global Research believes it better reflects the investment prospects of stocks in a Coverage Cluster.

INCOME RATINGS, indicators of potential cash dividends, are: 7 - same/higher (dividend considered to be secure), 8 - same/lower (dividend not considered to be secure) and 9 - pays no cash dividend. Coverage Cluster is comprised of stocks covered by a single analyst or two or more analysts sharing a common industry, sector, region or other classification(s). A stock's coverage cluster is included in the most recent BofA Global Research report referencing the stock.
