

HSBC (0005.HK/HSBA.L): HSBC announces disposal of its Life and Health Insurance Business in Singapore

On 24 Jul 2026, HSBC entered into an agreement to sell HSBC Life (Singapore) Pte. Ltd to Allianz for a consideration of US$2.1bn, with the expected completion in 1H27, subject to regulatory approval. HSBC Life SG offers a broad range of life and health insurance products in Singapore and reported PBT of S$118mn in 2025. Upon completion of disposal, HSBC Bank SG will enter into an exclusive 15-year bancassurance distribution agreement with Allianz, where it will distribute Allianz insurance products on an exclusive basis to its retail banking and wealth customers in Singapore. We note HSBC has partnership with Allianz in other regions such as Taiwan.

Financial impact to HSBC

- Per the release, HSBC will receive an upfront US$0.2bn lump sum payment from Allianz under the distribution agreement, which will be recognised in the income statement over the term of distribution agreement, along with other contractual variable additional consideration for performance under the agreement.
- HSBC expects to generate pre-tax gain on disposal of US$1.8bn at the consol. level, to be recognised upon completion and booked under material notable items. The disposal would not be subject to tax, and expected to increase HSBC Group CET1 ratio by up to 15bps.

HSBC notes that the transaction is part of the ongoing simplification of the Group as it continues to focus on areas where it has a clear competitive advantage. HSBC also remains committed to Singapore as an international wealth and wholesale banking hub. We view the announced disposal consistent with management's strategy to streamline operations and focus on areas with stronger competitive positioning. HSBC Life SG has a relatively small market share of c.6% consisting of both bancassurance and agency-led business, and we believe given its limited ability to achieve meaningful scale in the local market, the announced disposal and distribution agreement appears inline with HSBC's strategy to divest non core capital intensive businesses.

Valuation and key risks

We value HSBC.L based on a P/E methodology, using a target multiple of 12.0x applied 75%/25% to 2027/28E estimates to arrive at 12-month target prices of GBp1,725, while using a 2-stage dividend discount model for 0005.HK to arrive at a 12-month price target of HK$181. We maintain Buy ratings on 0005.HK and HSBC.L

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

For a more detailed description of how we calculate the GS Factor Profile, please contact your GS representative.

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html>.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances. Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.
