Earnings mix shift working — Non-II
resilience offsets rate headwinds

Maintain Rating: BUY | PO: 23.00 SGD | Price: 21.88 SGD

Non-II strength offsets NII drag; overlays remain prudent

OCBC reported 1Q26 NPAT S$1.97bn (+13% QoQ/+5% YoY) with Non-II at S$1.61bn (+22% QoQ/+23% YoY) more than offsetting lower NII of S$2.22bn (-3% QoQ/-5% YoY) in a lower-rate backdrop. Non-II strength was broad-based across fees (WM fees +34% YoY), treasury, and insurance. Costs stayed disciplined with CIR below 40%, while AQ remained resilient (NPL 0.9%) and allowances taken prudently as non-impaired overlays (S$191m), amid macro uncertainty. Overall, a solid qtr.

Wealth growth + strong capital return underpin rerating

We maintain Buy with S$23 PO, anchored on (1) sustained wealth momentum with WM continuing to close the gap with DBS, and net new money of S$5bn (2) an increasingly valuable customer-flow treasury engine capturing wealth activity and corporate hedging demand, and (3) continued shareholder returns supported by strong capital (even as incremental NT upside looks capped). Mgmt. reiterated FY26 targets of 50% ordinary dividend payout ratio, alongside remaining c. S$800mn of share buyback mandate potentially being paid as special dividends in 2027 (with FY26 final dividends) if unused.

HSBC Indo– strategically on-point; modest capital drag

Mgmt. flagged that the announced transaction to acquire HSBC Indonesia's IWPB business is expected to have a close to 2% negative drag on group profits for 2027 as they'd take on integration costs, along with a 20bps CET1 drag as the premium is deducted from CET1 (with the accounting treatment to be partly capitalized and partly amortized over time). With the transaction, fully phased-in CET1 is ~14% pro-forma post FY25 final + special dividends (14.2% as guided), which suggests limited room for near-term dividend upside. That said, the deal should be NIM-accretive at the margin over time given Indonesia's higher structural margins and the scope for cross-sell.

Company Sector

Banks-Multinational/Universal

Company Description

OCBC is the second-largest bank group in Singapore by total assets. OCBC differs from local Singapore banking peers as it has a large life insurance business (88% of SGX-listed Great Eastern Holdings). It has a diversified presence across ASEAN and Greater China. In 2010, it acquired the Asian private banking assets of ING Asia Private Bank and has since rebranded it as Bank of Singapore. In 2014, Wing Hang Bank became a wholly owned subsidiary, expanding the group's Greater China operations.

Investment Rationale

We rate OCBC Buy. As we enter the rate cut cycle, OCBC's lower NIM sensitivity, scope for higher contribution from ASEAN businesses, better wealth management yields and operating efficiency seem under-appreciated by the market. OCBC's management revamp and renewed strategic plan focused on regional flows & wealth management will likely positively surprise over next 1-2 years, in our view. We also expect positive surprises on dividends. Hence we expect DBS's valuation premium over OCBC to narrow.

Key takeaways from analyst call

HSBC Indo wealth acquisition

- EPS accretive – but will incur integration costs of ~2% of OCBC Group profits in 2027 (deal expected to close mid-2027). Premium paid will also be capitalized / amortized over few years.
- Cost synergy – due to cost structure of wealth segment (high fixed costs, low variable costs), OCBC likely to realize cost synergies (will only take on variable costs while cutting systems, compliance, controls costs etc.)
- Deposits synergy – sizeable CASA within the deposits portfolio that will be immediately accretive to OCBC Indonesia
- Little overlap in customer base – HSBC vs. current OCBC customer base is said to have very little overlap, enabling OCBC to offer its product suite to essentially a whole new segment of clients.

This HSBC Indo wealth acquisition is focused on the affluent segment in Indonesia (not UHNW) – which tend to leave quite a sizeable portion of their wealth onshore. There is large room for OCBC to improve market share in this segment.

- CET1 usage – estimated to take up 0.2% pts of CET1 in 2027

NIM

- 1Q26 NIMs contract 10 bp QoQ to 1.76% – driven by lower loan yields (-9 bp), HQLA deployment (-4 bp), absence of one-off noise from 4Q25 (-3 bp), partially offset by treasury market NIMs expanding (+7 bp)
- FY26 slight to moderate decline in NII reiterated – likely to end up at lower end of range given OCBC's average 3M SORA assumption revised down from 1.4% to 1.2%

Growth

- 1Q26 loan growth strong at 1.8% QoQ – driven by TMT, sustainable loans, wealth financing and residential mortgages
- FY26 MSD guidance reiterated

Non-II

- 1Q26 non-II growth strong at 22.6% YoY – driven by an estimated 36% increase in WM fees, 34% increase in insurance income contribution from GE, and 10% increase in trading income.
- WM segment saw net new money of S$5 bn.

Cost efficiency

- 1Q26 CIR 39.3% on strong top-line + cost control.
- FY26 40-40% CIR guidance reiterated

Asset quality

- 1Q26 credit costs at 23 bp – consisting of 4 bp SP + 19 bp GP (consisting of some mgmt. overlay). GP top-up was driven by macro uncertainties surrounding the war and the fallout on energy costs. New corporate NPAs were extremely benign.
- FY26 20-25 bp credit costs guidance reiterated

Capital

- Further capital management plans likely delayed to end-2027 – pro-forma CET1 post FY25 final + special dividend payout is 14.2% as of end-March 2026. HSBC Indonesia deal will utilize another 0.2% pts, which will only be completed mid-2027. With share buyback plan already in place till end-FY26, management likely to only assess capital position post-deal (4Q27).
- Not ruling out further M&A – but priority remains on liquidity in current uncertain macro environment with pro-forma CET1 levels already near 14%.

Equity Investment Rating Distribution: Global Group (as of 31 Mar 2026)

Coverage Universe	Count	Percent	Inv. Banking Relationships ^{R1}	Count	Percent
Buy	1993	55.76%	Buy	1186	59.51%
Hold	821	22.97%	Hold	509	62.00%
Sell	760	21.26%	Sell	400	52.63%

^{R1} Issuers that were investment banking clients of BofA Securities or one of its affiliates within the past 12 months. For purposes of this Investment Rating Distribution, the coverage universe includes only stocks. A stock rated Neutral is included as a Hold, and a stock rated Underperform is included as a Sell.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). Our investment ratings are: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. An investment rating of 6 (No Rating) indicates that a stock is no longer trading on the basis of fundamentals. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

Investment rating	Total return expectation (within 12-month period of date of initial rating)	Ratings dispersion guidelines for coverage cluster ^{R2}
Buy	≥ 10%	≤ 70%
Neutral	≥ 0%	≤ 30%
Underperform	N/A	≥ 20%

^{R2} Ratings dispersions may vary from time to time where BofA Global Research believes it better reflects the investment prospects of stocks in a Coverage Cluster.

INCOME RATINGS, indicators of potential cash dividends, are: 7 - same/higher (dividend considered to be secure), 8 - same/lower (dividend not considered to be secure) and 9 - pays no cash dividend. Coverage Cluster is comprised of stocks covered by a single analyst or two or more analysts sharing a common industry, sector, region or other classification(s). A stock's coverage cluster is included in the most recent BofA Global Research report referencing the stock.
